

Track it Down at Your Library!

Summer Reading Program for Kids

Make tracks to the library with your children, for a summer of fun and adventure. On June 14th, at every local library branch, The Santa Barbara Public Library System kicks off the 2004 Summer Reading Program, "Track It down at Your Library."

TEENS from grades 7-12 will want to join the Teen Reading Program – "Reading Expedition!" – also starting June 14th. All summer long, be sure to visit your local library for great books, fun programs, and lots of prizes too! See you there for reading fun at the library during June, July, and August!

Surf to the Library!

Check out the Santa Barbara Public Library System's new website, at www.sbplibrary.org. Point-and-click your way to library locations, hours, children's services, search engines, online information services, your personal library account, the library catalog in English or Spanish, and browse around anytime day or night, 24/7.

City Budget Update

The City Council review and public hearings for Santa Barbara's proposed fiscal year 2005 budget have now begun. Public hearings on the budget, along with presentations by city departments, will continue through June 8th. The proposed budget, plus the scheduled dates and times for the public hearings and department presentations, are posted on the City of Santa Barbara's website at: <http://www.ci.santa-barbara.ca.us/departments/finance/budget/recommended/>.

In the Works

Sidewalk Improvements

The City Sidewalk Improvement Project involves constructing 21,000 square feet of sidewalks, 23 wheelchair ramps, 1,100 feet of curbs and gutters, plus other miscellaneous concrete improvements at various locations in the community. In addition, about 13,000 square feet of parkway area will be landscaped. Work began this May, with completion anticipated during July.
